

Lee Hardy – Profile

Lee was born locally and educated in Wimborne schools, he has lived with his family in the local area all his life and in Corfe Mullen for the last 23 years.

Lee brings wide-ranging experience gained during a long operationally focused military career, and subsequently in the commercial sector. Lee seeks to add fresh thinking and ideas on what matters most for the Corfe Mullen community, listening to the local community, and transparency and openness in decision making, financial prudence and enriching the environment in which we live.
