

Cllr Peter Neil

Peter was born in Poole and has lived locally for most of his life apart from his later educational years and has been living in the same location in Corfe Mullen with his family for nearly 40 years.

Peter brings a wealth of experience from a long working career in the Engineering Construction Industry working on some of Europe's most iconic Projects spending most of his career as a Senior Cost Engineer & Quantity Surveyor.

Now retired, and with a keen interest in environmental protection, Peter felt it was the appropriate time to join a local governing body where he could influence policy that would protect Corfe Mullen for future generations.

Since being co-opted to Corfe Mullen Town Council in February 2022, Peter has become involved with the Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group as Vice Chair and is a member of the Town Council Climate Change Working Party.

Also an active Trustee for the Dorset Branch of the Campaign for the Protection of Rural England, bringing together his focus on protecting the wonderful green environment we enjoy here In Corfe Mullen.
