

I have lived in Corfe Mullen with my family for over 30 years and was first elected on to the Parish Council in 2003.

I was County Councillor for Corfe Mullen for 16 years, from 2004 until I retired from the Dorset Council at the elections in May 2019. With the creation of the Dorset Unitary Council, Parish Councils will have an enhanced role and greater responsibilities and I hope to continue to contribute to our new role.

I love Corfe Mullen, our surroundings, our countryside, our friendly people and our long history. I contribute as much as I can to this lovely varied village, and I am involved in the Sports Association, and Chair both the Youth Trust and the Beacon Hill Liaison Committee. I am also a past Chairman of the Parish Council.
